Only Details Remain to Be | BEST TEAM OF WAITERS Worked Out, According to Man Who Gives Out the Story Witheld After New York Conference

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] CHCAGO, Dec. 19.—That is baseled pact was actually signed and scale last week and that only the details remain to be worked out at the meeting between the National Commission and representatives of the Federal league in Cincinnati Tuesday, was the statement made here today by a man who is financially interested in the pence terms.

According to this statement it was agreed at the New York meeting tha the Federal league would retain all it players, reimbursing its backers from their sale to cinis in organized base ball and that the American and Na tional leagues would reimburse the Wards of Brooklyn for their outlay, the Federals on their part agreeing to withdraw from the field.

Members of the party who returned today from New York were silent on the subject of the meeting, though President Johnson again said peace Breach of Contract and Obwas sure to come. He and President to include Monay Under Chivington of the American Associa tion will go to Cincinnati tomorrow take jurt in the final deliberations meeting there the other members of the National Commission, the Federal lengue's representatives and those of the National Association.

Of the ballplayers in the Pederal lengue roster, seventy, it is said, are under 'fronclad' contracts extending light elight champion, at a meeting to-a year or more. Their combined sur- morrow of the New York Sinte Albaries amount to more than $200,000 a

GEORGE STOVALL REFUSES TO BE SWITCHED ASIDE

If the Kinsas City Fed team is transferred to New York, the our law magnates may strike a snag if they attempt to put a celebrity n charge and attempt to siderack George Stovall, who manged the Packers the last two seasons, for Brother George is one of those fighters who will not be sidetracked without a fight. From Los Angeles, George intimates that he will have something to say about managing the team. Then be adds that there is a strong chance that the Packers will be at bome in Runsas City next year.
